JANUARY 12, 2016 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 77 NO. 16

THIS TUESDAY

Luz Quinnell with the Los Cerritos Wetlands Authority. The Wetlands have to be real wet by now. Thank you El Niño.

LAST TUESDAY

Our speaker was Mark Stanley, Executive Officer of the San Gabriel River Discovery Center Authority. His topic was what is the San Gabriel River Discovery Center Authority and what does it do.

The San Gabriel River Discovery Center is being developed to provide a hands-on, indoor and outdoor learning experience where more than 100,000 local students, families, and nature enthusiasts per year will learn the story of the San Gabriel River Watershed.

The Discovery Center will emphasize the importance of understanding and protecting our water resources. Through its innovative and sustainable design, the Discovery Center will allow visitors to participate in all of the beauty, natural history, and local culture the San Gabriel River Watershed has to offer.

The San Gabriel River Discovery is being developed in two phases:

The first phase, which is accessible through this website today, emphasizes environmental stewardship utilizing coursework that has been developed by participating agencies and through online games.

The second phase is the development of the physical learning environment, including indoor and outdoor classrooms that will engage schoolchildren in basic environmental studies, to college students interested in careers based in green technology, while serving local families as a resource in their own backyard. The state-of-the-art center will celebrate the environment, promote a culture of environmental stewardship, and engage future generations by showcasing the importance of ecosystems and the history of the watershed. The Discovery Center is currently finishing its design and preliminary engineering, while developing the fundraising and financing that will ultimately lead to the project's completion.

Dan Arrighi paid because it was raining so hard. Rich Wenzel was happy that he was able to see his two granddaughters. Steve and Lisa Montesanti were celebrating in Las Vegas when then found out their daughter was involved in a traffic accident back home. Congratulations to newlywed Ed Chen upon his marriage to Joyce in Temple City on December 12, 2015.

Steve helped feed 600 students in 30 minutes at the Rosemont Pavilion while preparing the floats. Cloverly students Ashley and Christy sent thank you cards to use for their Student of the Month awards. Mike Lepore gave a donation for his 71 years to the Elmer Black Scholarship fund. Frank Ruedel has completed his membership education and physical and is awaiting to be inducted into this fine group.
