SEPTEMBER 6, 2016 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 77 NO. 49

THIS TUESDAY

Wendy McGrail will speak on the St. Vincent De Paul Society. Programs include home visits, housing assistance, disaster relief, job training and placement, food pantries, dining halls, clothing, transportation and utility costs, care for the elderly and medicine. The Society in the United States provides more than $675 million in tangible and in-kind services, serves more than 14 million people in need each year, performs more than 654,000 visits to people in their homes, and delivers more than 7 million service hours to those in need.

LAST TUESDAY

Our own Dan Snell reprised his account of the Civil War. Dan is shown holding a mini-ball which was the bullet of choice in that day.

The American Civil War was a civil war in the United States fought from 1861 to 1865. The Union faced secessionists in eleven Southern states grouped together as the Confederate States of America. The Union won the war, which remains the bloodiest in U.S. history.

Among the 34 U.S. states in January 1861, seven Southern slave states individually declared their secession from the U.S. and formed the Confederate States of America. War broke out in April 1861 when they attacked a U.S. fortress, Fort Sumter. The Confederacy grew to include eleven states; it claimed two more states and several western territories. The Confederacy was never diplomatically recognized by any foreign country. The states that remained loyal including border states where slavery was legal, were known as the Union or the North. The war ended with the surrender of all the Confederate armies and the collapse of Confederate government in spring 1865.

The war had its origin in the factious issue of slavery, especially the extension of slavery into the western territories. Four years of intense combat left 620,000 to 750,000 soldiers dead, a higher number than the American military deaths of World War I and World War II combined, and destroyed much of the South's infrastructure. The Confederacy collapsed and slavery was abolished in the entire country. The Reconstruction Era (1863-1877) overlapped and followed the war, with its fitful process of restoring national unity, strengthening the national government, and guaranteeing civil rights to the freed slaves.

The Kiwanis Rose Float Club of Pasadena will hold a Barbeque and Rib Fest (All you can eat) on Saturday, September 17 at LaSalle High School at Sierra Madre Blvd and Mitchillinda. Tickets are $40 per copy with kids under 8 are free. Contact Craig Wallace at 909 210-3250.

Installation of officers will take place at El Ruizeñor Grill, 5818 Temple City Blvd. The event will take place on Tuesday, September 27 with a social hour beginning at 6 p.m. You will want to be there to see Steve go for the 4th time around. Steve warns the venue could change so stay tuned. Steve is getting ready vacationing in Hawaii.

Rich Wenzel is announcing Ronald McDonald Meals of Love again for Wednesday, September 7. The theme is ground beef with the Main Dish by Rich Wenzel and Matt Smith, Salad by Bob Rodenbucher and Sue Matchett, Bread by Ron Dorazio, Drinks by Steve Montesanti, and Dessert by Save Seltman and Dan Snell. Much appreciation goes to Rich Wenzel for his years of coordinating this important service. He will be taking some time off and Matt Smith will be taking over the duties.

SUMMER CONCERTS IN THE PARK

As reported by Matt Smith: Last Concert in the Park sales report for the year (Yeah?!). Total sales for the night: $334 (plus another $100 that has been in the cash box for making change since the first Concert in the Park that has never been officially deposited). Elapsed time: 2 hours; that's right, 2 hours - we basically sold out of everything that we have sold for each of the past three weeks by 8:00 PM. WOW!

Many regular later soft serve customers were disappointed to hear that we had sold out of soft serve just as the band broke at 8:00, but the Blue Star Banner group wasn't there tonight (aka Vanilla ice cream bowls), so many of their customers came to us early. We wound up selling our normal night soft serve sales; we just did in an hour and a half instead of two and a half hours. Many people were not happy so I just explained to them that it was Mike McVey's fault & they understood. Ron also stood up a few times to throw out his chest to let them know that Kiwanis Security was present. All in all, a good night and a GREAT year. Thanks to everyone for their support!!!
